USEFUL INFORMATION

CENP is a collaborating institution of the Chamber of Commerce in Madrid for the Exams "Spanish for Business" and "Spanish for Tourism".

Visa for Spain:

EU citizens do not require a visa to enter or stay in Spain. Students from Canada, Japan, Norway, Switzerland, USA, New Zealand, do not require a visa and may stay in Spain up to 90 days just with their passport. However, if they wish to stay longer, they must apply for an extension of the permit. The school will provide you with a certificate so that you can apply.

For any other country you may check with the Spanish Consulate or Embassy in your country to find out the documents necessary to issue the visa.

From Madrid Airport (Barajas) you may take the subway or the bus, departing every 15-20 minutes. If you prefer, you can ask to be picked up at the airport (40.- Euro).

All students, except beginners, will take a test to determine their level on Monday, prior to the commencement of their course. However at the time of application please, and only as a reference, indicate your level.

There is a tutorial service to help students.

Students of Spanish have free and unlimited access to Internet and CENP's library during opening hours. They may also use the computer labs available at CENP.

University Credits:

Students of Spanish at Universities are advised to work with an advisor and/or registrar on their home campus prior to departure for Spain to ensure transfer of credits and adequate progress toward their undergraduate degree.

The student whose information is contained in this document accepts responsibility for its accuracy and agrees to pursue his/her studies with diligence and acknowledges that he/she has read and accepts the conditions.
